

جامعة كالغاري في قطر
UNIVERSITY OF CALGARY IN QATAR

The University of Calgary opened its first overseas branch campus with generous financial support from the State of Qatar and began delivering undergraduate nursing programs in 2007. Student enrolment has steadily increased during the years, and now the University of Calgary in Qatar (UCQ) offers several nursing education streams, including a Master's degree program.

To sustain its growth in promoting and increasing the profile of professional nursing practice in Qatar, the University of Calgary in Qatar is currently seeking PhD-Prepared Nursing Faculty who will play a key role in the education of nursing students, with focus on the graduate level. This is an excellent opportunity for established academics at professoriate level who have the passion for teaching and research in an international environment.

Ideal candidates should have a successful track record in teaching at University level and scholarly research and publications. Preference will be given to PhD prepared Educators with a minimum of three years' experience teaching at the undergraduate and/or graduate level. Registration with a Canadian Nursing Authority is required.

The successful applicant will be appointed at professoriate rank, and must be prepared to relocate to Doha, Qatar by August 2016. This is a two year contract renewable upon mutual agreement. Faculty seeking full term, secondment or visiting appointments are invited to submit their application.

Qualifications / Requirements:

- Classroom and/or clinical teaching at the undergraduate level and require evidence of successful teaching ability, professional experience, and evidence of personal scholarship
- Nursing registration with a Canadian registration authority
- Previous research and peer reviewed publications
- PhD Nursing, or a nursing degree together with a PhD in a relevant discipline, e.g., Education.
