

Music Care Conference 2018
Waterloo, ON
Saturday, November 17, 2018
CIGI Campus

Music Care Conference Waterloo 2018

Theme: Music, Aging and Wellness

WHAT?

The Music Care Conference (MCC) is a one day gathering of care partners interested in the role music has in living and aging well. MCC identifies themes and issues using music across the care spectrum and provides understanding about current practices and research. Speakers include:

- Dr. Gary Ansdell – Care for Music: An Ethnography of Music in Late Life, End of Life Settings
- Dr. Andrea Creech – Musicking and Creative Music Technologies for Enriching Later Life
- Sasha Judelson-Kelly – The Circle of Music Project – Singing and Dementia
- Dr. Victoria Meredith – A Voice for Life
- Chelsea Mackinnon – Music Research in Long-Term Care: Music Care Partners and Hamilton Intergenerational Music Program
- Sarah Pearson – Having Musical Conversations in Palliative Care
- Dr. Justine Schneider – The British Experiment – Arts and Social Prescription
- Dr. Lee Willingham & Bev Foster – Towards Developing and Mobilizing a Music, Aging, and Wellness Policy
- Ian Thomas – My Story with Music and Wellness – Keynote performance

WHY?

Room 217 is partnering with the Laurier Centre for Music in the Community to bring together stakeholders in music in care for a day of information and inspiration around music, aging and wellness.

WHO?

MCC is for anyone who wants to learn more about the role music plays in care. Other health arts stakeholders will find this conference beneficial to learn about the growing use of arts in care in Canada.

WHEN?

Saturday, Nov. 17, 2018

WHERE?

CIGI Campus, Waterloo, ON

HOW?

Online at www.musiccareconference.ca or by phone 905-852-2499 or toll-free 1-844-985-0217

- $115 Early Bird (until Oct. 8)
- $135 Regular • $95 for Students and Seniors

