

Ethel Johns Award 2024

Nomination Form

The Ethel Johns Award from CASN is named after the founding Director of the first university nursing program in Canada. It is given in recognition of distinguished service to nursing education in Canada. CASN has presented this award to outstanding nursing education leaders since 1988. This award is presented annually at the Fall CASN Council meeting.

Eligibility

Any faculty member of a CASN member school may be nominated.

The member must have a current RN registration within the last 12 months.

Please Note:

- Current Board members are excluded from receiving a CASN Award.
- The Awards & Nominations Committee reserves the right to move candidates between categories as required, and at their discretion.

Criteria

The recipient of the CASN Ethel Johns Award will demonstrate the following characteristics:

1. Has demonstrated leadership in curriculum development, administration, teaching, and research;
2. Has made significant contributions to the CASN Council and committees over many years at national and international levels; and,
3. Has strengthened the quality of nursing education and the nursing profession.

Submission/Nomination Documentation

Individuals must be nominated in writing by a faculty member of any CASN member school. A complete nomination package should include the following:

- Completed & signed Nomination Form
- 3 Letters of Support (from the nominator and two other independent colleagues or peers). The letters of support should be addressed to CASN's Awards & Nominations Committee. Letters should specifically reference the nominee's achievements and activities related to the award criteria, and identify the individual by name, title, and school/faculty. Additional letters of support will not be accepted.

- A 250-word description (in Word format) of the contributions of the nominee and her/his distinguished service to nursing education in Canada must be submitted. Descriptions which exceed the 250 word maximum will not be accepted.

In addition to the 250-word description, supporting documentation could include audio-visual materials, website addresses, manuals, and commendations from the candidate's institution or a partner organization.

Selection Process

The Awards & Nominations Committee will review the nominations and present recommendations to the CASN Board of Directors.
