

Nursing Education Excellence Award (Tenured/Tenure-Track and Non-Tenured Positions) 2024 Nomination Form

Fostering the highest standards in professional nursing education is a critical component of CASN's mission. The objective of the award for Excellence in Nursing Education (tenured/tenure-track and non-tenured) is to acknowledge the contributions and accomplishments of individuals to the realization of our mission and to promote and disseminate good practices in nursing education. These awards are presented annually at the Fall CASN Council meeting.

Eligibility

Award for Tenured/Tenure-Track Positions

Any member who is a tenured or tenure-track professor of a CASN member school may be nominated. The main and exceptional contribution for which the educator is nominated must have taken place during the three years preceding the submission of her or his candidacy (this is to ensure the contemporary relevancy of the contribution).

Award for Non-Tenured Positions

Any member in a non-tenured position i.e. instructor, lecturer, lab instructor of a CASN member school may be nominated. The main and exceptional contribution for which the educator is nominated must have taken place during the three years preceding the submission of her or his candidacy (this is to ensure the contemporary relevancy of the contribution).

For both tenured/tenure-track and non-tenured, the member must have a current RN registration within the last 12 months.

Please Note:

- Current Board members are excluded from receiving a CASN Award.
- The Nominations & Awards Committee reserves the right to move candidates between categories as required, and at their discretion.

Criteria

The recipient of the CASN Award of Excellence in Nursing Education will demonstrate the following characteristics:

1. Sustained teaching activities of high quality as recognized by peers and students.
2. Commitment to mentorship of students and colleagues.
3. Ability to introduce innovation in educational activities (such as in courses, practicum, and programs).
4. Leadership in influencing the quality of education within the academic and practice areas.
5. Active engagement in promoting excellence in nursing education.
6. Identify if recipient is a professor in a non-tenured or tenured/tenure-track position.

Submission/Nomination Documentation

Individuals must be nominated in writing by a faculty member of any CASN member school.

A completed nomination package should include the following:

- Completed & signed Nomination Form
- 3 Letters of Support (from the nominator and two other independent colleagues or peers). The letters of support should be addressed to CASN's Awards & Nominations Committee. Letters should specifically reference the nominee's achievements and activities related to the award criteria, and identify the individual by name, title and school/faculty. Additional letters of support will not be accepted.
- A 250-word description (in Word format) of the challenges, innovation, implementation, and impact of the educational strategies/approaches of the candidate should be included. Descriptions which exceed the 250-word maximum will not be accepted.

In addition to the 250 word description, supporting documentation such as audio-visual materials, website addresses, manuals, and commendations from the candidate's institution or a partner organization could be included.

Selection Process

The Nominations and Awards Committee will review the nominations and present recommendations to the CASN Board of Directors.
