

Supporter Guide

The Canadian Association of Schools of Nursing (CASN) has been the national voice for nursing education, research, and scholarship for over 80 years, and it currently represents 95 member schools across Canada. As a member of national and international networks for discussion of issues in higher education and nursing, CASN speaks for Canadian nursing education and scholarship, establishes national standards of excellence for nursing education, and promotes the advancement of nursing knowledge.

Your support of CASN helps us advocate for quality nursing education public policy, and support, build capacity across the nursing profession, and establish and inspire connections to strengthen and sustain schools of nursing in Canada.

National voice for an exclusive audience

CASN is a national, voluntary, bilingual organization that provides services and essential resources to a wide variety of Canadian nursing education institutions, programs, and professionals, including leaders, and decision-makers in the field.

Our active audience of nearly 200,000 includes deans, directors, chairs, faculty, administrators, students, nurses, physicians, scientists, as well as policy makers and government officials in the health care space.

Supporting nursing education

Supporting CASN and the work we do on behalf of the Canadian nursing education sector is an investment in nursing education and research, which benefits the greater public. Sponsorship and advertising with CASN are excellent ways to make an impact while helping raise your organization's profile among decision-makers in Canadian nursing education.
