

THOMPSON RIVERS UNIVERSITY

Assistant / Associate Professor Tenure Track- (02052.821)

Kamloops BC, Canada

The School of Nursing seeks applications for Tripartite tenure track positions with a potential start date of January 1, 2024

TRU gives students the advantage of small class sizes, the availability of undergraduate research and a centrally located campus. More than 26,000 students study at TRU either on campus or online. They consist of 10 per cent Indigenous students and more than 30 per cent international students from around the globe. TRU and the School of Nursing value equity, diversity, and inclusivity and are committed to the enactment of the national Truth and Reconciliation Commission calls to action. We are at an exciting stage of growth with a new Nursing and Population Health building that includes state of the art simulation labs. The School of Nursing offers BScN, MN, PN (Williams Lake only), and HCA programs, with the inaugural intake for the MN-NP program this past spring 2023.

To apply; please visit the public posting link and apply through our careers site:
<https://tru.hua.hrsmart.com/hr/ats/Posting/view/25339>

Major Responsibilities

Successful candidates with a tripartite appointment will teach theory and practice courses in the undergraduate and graduate programs, have a developed program of research /scholarship and engage in service to the university and community.

Required Knowledge/Skills

Education

- PhD or other doctorate; consideration may be given to doctoral candidates who will complete their degree by the appointment date or shortly thereafter;
- Master's degree – Nurse Practitioner
- Holds a minimum of one degree in nursing

Experience

- Evidence of continuous learning in your area of nursing;
- Experience teaching theory and clinical practice;
- An understanding of, and experience in, the Canadian healthcare system; and
- Current NP registration in a Canadian jurisdiction in good standing without limits or conditions, and/or eligibility for registration with BCCNM*Official transcripts will be required prior to appointment.

Thompson Rivers University is strongly committed to hiring based on merit with a focus on fostering diversity of thought within our community. We welcome those who would contribute to the further diversification of our staff, our faculty and its scholarship including, but not limited to, women, Indigenous, Black and People of Colour, persons with disabilities and persons of any sexual orientation or gender identity. Please note that all qualified candidates are encouraged to apply, however applications from Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.